OPELIKA, AL, December 3, 2007 – As part of the Lee County Red Cross 2008 Heroes Campaign, Lee County Red Cross Volunteer Don Turner has brought an exciting event all the way from the frozen North Platte River in Nebraska to the Lee County area. As his “Heroes Event” Don Turner and The Reserve Apartments will be hosting an event to celebrate Groundhog’s Day while raising money for the Lee County Red Cross.

On February 2, 2008, at 8:00 a.m. the Reserve Apartments in Auburn will host the Hoggy Doggy Splash. Participants in this event will jump into an ice cold pool at The Reserve Apartments on South College Street while their friends, family, and co-workers cheer them on.

Don Turner, on behalf of the Lee County Red Cross, is looking for citizens who are willing to help them take the plunge into their 2008 Heroes Campaign by participating in the Hoggy Doggy Splash. Everyone is welcome to join in the fun! Each participant will be asked to raise a minimum of $100, money that will directly benefit the local programs of the Lee County Red Cross.

The Hoggy Doggy Splash is a great way to get new people involved in supporting the Lee County Red Cross. “I can think of several people that I would love to see jump into that water!” Lee County Red Cross Executive Director Jennifer Ryan jokes.

Participants are signing up now for the Hoggy Doggy Splash! If you are willing to take the plunge, or if you know someone who would like to be involved, please contact Event Chairman Don Turner at 334-744-0581 or email him at renrutii@bellsouth.net.
