

Become a local or national Red Cross Volunteer
DISASTER VOLUNTEER TRAINING

American Red Cross
Lee County Chapter

206 26th Street, Opelika, AL 36801
•334-749-9981 •Fax: 334-749-8299 • Email: mnelson@leeredcross.org

SATURDAY, JULY 31, 2010, 9:00 AM – 3:00 P.M.
AT THE LEE COUNTY RED CROSS
206 26TH ST., OPELIKA, AL
Please bring a sack lunch.

Join us for the DISASTER PUBLIC AFFAIRS, LOCAL RESPONSE course. This class will introduce Red Cross volunteers and communicators to the critical tasks necessary to initiate a chapter public affairs response. Don't want to wait until this class to get started? Log on to our website at www.leeredcross.org and start by completing Introduction to Disaster training online.

DISASTER COURSES ARE FREE!

More than a million Red Cross volunteers nationwide provide relief to victims of disasters and help people prevent, prepare for and respond to emergencies. If you are looking for a way to serve your community, you can be trained as a disaster volunteer and become a part of this exciting volunteer-force. Call now for more information and to reserve your seat in this class. If you have a large group and would like to schedule private training, please call our office.

Please come by, mail or fax your registration by
Thursday, July 29* to reserve your seat.
Mail to Lee County Red Cross, 206 26th Street, Opelika AL 36801

Name _____
Address _____
City, State, Zip _____
Telephone: _____ Email: _____